perfection, but she can't let anyone know she's unemployed and barely scraping by. Above all, she needs to steer clear of Connor Blackwood, the sexy groomsman who broke her heart five years ago. When Jess and Connor end up together, exploring the island's lush, tropical beauty, the sparks between them become impossible to ignore. Throwing caution to the wind, they decide to make their own rules. Five days of passion. No strings. No tears. No promises. What could possibly go wrong?

No Fault, No Blame, No Excuse Cliff Bond 2014-04 This is an account of the author's work with addicted clients and their codependent families in recovery from addiction, as well as an exploration of the excessive shame, guilt, fault, blame, and excuses that go along with it. What worked for them can surely apply to us all, even if our stories might not be quite as extreme. ?Tell me a story? is not just for children to say. Read these stories for yourself, and appreciate the wisdom and guidance that can come from practical application of truth that fits everyone's story. ?In the beginning was the Word, ? was said by the Apostle John, as the opening statement in his record of the Christ. ?In the beginning was the Story? would not be a bad translation either.

No Excuse Allen Robinson 2022-02-22 When we think about the Christian life, we must look at all the evidence the Word of God has given us and come to the conclusion that we must examine our hearts to see the call to live in obedience through the new covenant that we have been given through Jesus Christ. The evidence is crystal clear. We are called as followers of Christ to be committed to living a life focused on Him. A faith-filled life requires us to address each area of our life that does not fit our Christian testimony and correct those areas to help experience the fullness of an active Christian life.
